

World War II: The Fight Against Japan in the Pacific

1. Label Japan and shade it.
2. Label the countries that Japan occupied during World War II including: Korea, Manchuria, China, French Indochina, and the Philippines. Shade each of these countries the same color as Japan.
3. Label the following battle locations between the Japanese and the US including: Philippines, Coral Sea, Midway, Iwo Jima, and Okinawa.
4. Draw a line between the Pacific battles that represented the US Island Hopping Strategy.
5. Label the cities of Hiroshima and Nagasaki, where the US dropped the atomic bombs.

Timeline of World War II: The Fight Against Japan in the Pacific

The Fight for the Philippines

Battle of the Coral Sea

Battle of Midway

The Doolittle Raid

Battle for Iwo Jima

Battle for Okinawa

The Atomic Bomb and Surrender of Japan