

11. Why did Hobbes say that governments were necessary?

12. How is the Divine Right of Theory different from the Social Contract theory?

13. Which theory is our Declaration of Independence a part of?

14. According to you're the preamble to the Constitution what are the six purposes of our government?

How well did you read?

Look at the Section Assessment 1 on page 10 and see how many of these questions you can answer. You can choose a partner in class to help your quiz yourself. You will have a 10 question practice quiz to see how well you read.

On-Line Extension Activities

Each section has on-line extension activities. You can use these on-line activities at:

<http://www.phschool.com>

For example, enter the code mqd-1011 to explore the Enlightenment philosophers.