

Chapter 4.1 Federalism

Pages 88-96

What is the definition of federalism given in your book?

What does the 10th amendment say about the division of powers between the national government and the state government?

What does your book say is one of federalism's main strengths as a system of government?

Give one example of a state power or law.

Give one example of a national power or law.

Fill in the grid for the three types of delegated power found in our Constitution

	Expressed Powers	Implied Powers	Inherent Powers
Definition
Where in the Constitution are these powers found?
Examples	Expressed Powers	Implied Powers	Inherent Powers

List three types of power denied to the National Government:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

List two powers reserved for the states:

- 1.
- 2.

List two powers denied to the states:

1.

2.

List two exclusive powers of the National Government?

1.

2.

List two concurrent powers of the both the state and national governments.

1.

2.

According to your textbook, are local governments part of State Government or National Government?

Which clause in the Constitution puts National law above state law?

Which branch of government is the umpire in the federal system?

Which Supreme Court case determined that the National government was supreme over state laws?