

A Day Without Technology

Imagine a day in your life without modern technology. Make a list below of every device, appliance, or good that uses electricity, gasoline or natural gas. How many things can you list?

Now write a paragraph describing a day in your life without this technology. How did people live before the Industrial Revolution? Describe your pre-industrial day, starting in the morning. Then describe your afternoon and evening in your paragraph below and on the back side of this worksheet.